ABOUT GWALIOR

Gwalior is a historical city in the heart of India, situated in the state of Madhya Pradesh, 120 km from Agra and 317 km from Delhi. It is well connected with Delhi, Bhopal, Mumbai, Bangalore and Hyderabad by train and road and by air from Delhi and Mumbai. Gwalior known as city of music, as perhaps the richest musical tradition among all the cities in this great country starting from Tansen, Baijubaab, Hassukhan, Haddukhan, Krishnarao Pandit, Bala Sahib Puchwale, Chote Bhayya, Puchhwale, Bande Ali Khan, Shankar Rao Pandit and to come to the living legends Malini Rajekar, Ustad Amjad Ali Khan, the list is endless. Most famous and memorable landmarks include Gwalior fort, the living palace of Scindia's, Jai Vilas Palace, the tomb of the famous musician Tansen and museums. Agra, the city of Taj, is 110 km from Gwalior and 1.5 hrs journey by express train. The world famous Khajuraho group of temples, depicting all facts of life, is 4 hours journey by road. Orchha is 100 km from Gwalior and is a treat for weekend trips as the village still carries old time feel with palaces, temples, cenotaphs and ruins along the banks of Betwa river.
