

Four Day Workshop on Operations Management

A four-day workshop was organized by the School of Management, ITM University Gwalior. The objective of this workshop was to give exposure and enlighten MBA students in the field of operations management. Dr. T. Vasudha who is an operations management expert was the resource person for this workshop. She is a Freelance consultant and Co-Convenor, Policy and Advocacy CII AWN AP. The expert took the sessions in a very congenial manner. All the sessions in this four day workshop were lively and highly engaging. The students shared a nice feedback for the resource person.

The following topics were discussed during the workshop:

- Concept of operations Management.
- Process and layout planning
- Cycle time
- Operations capacity
- Critical path
- Critical time
- Critical activities
- Activities usually emphasized by organizations to improve operations
- Assembly Line
- Numerical solving in operations management.
- Students were asked for presentation on operations in veterinary clinic.

Glimpses of the Workshop:

